SUPERIOR AND CIRCUIT JUDGES RE-GIN VACATION NEXT SATURDAY.

Progress in Disposing of Cases-Criminal Docket Is Well Up.

The judges of the Marion county courts are working hard these days trying to dispose of as much business as possible before the summer vacation. The three Superior Courts and the Circuit Court will adjourn a week from to-day-July 1. Judge McMaster, of Room 1, and Judge Carter, of Room 3, will hold adjourned sessions in July for the purpose of disposing of important receiverships. Judge McMaster will hold court on account of the sale of the Indianapolis News, which is to take place on July 12. Judge Carter will be on the bench July 17 to pass on the sale of the Indianapolis & Broad Ripple Rapid Transit Company.

Judge Leathers, of Room 2, has arranged to go away for the summer. With Mrs. Leathers he will spend his vacation at Superior, Wis., with relatives. Judge Carter is planning a fishing trip to the Canada lakes. He and Judge McMaster went there last summer and had an enjoyable time. Of the fishing in that locality Judge Carter remarked the other day: "It's very fine. Last summer was the first time in my life that I was able to catch as many bass as I wanted." Judge McMaster will probably accompany Judge Carter on the same trip this year. Judge Allen, of the Circuit Court, has not decided where he will rest during his vacation. He says that Mrs. Allen has informed him that he is going away from

The judges of the Circuit and Superior courts are well pleased with the progress that has been made during the last term in their respective judiciaries. In the Circuit Court, where the docket is always very heavy, it is not thought there will be more than 300 or 400 cases left at the end of the term. This is considered an excellent showing. An immense amount of litigation has also been disposed of in the Superior Court in the last year. The Superior and Circuit courts will convene in regular term again the first Monday in September. The most important litigation ahead for the Superior Court is the suit of the State against the Vandalia Railway Company to recover money alleged to be due the school fund. This case is in Room 2. Judge Alford, of the Criminal Court, is particularly elated over the condition of the docket in his court. He says the Criminal Court is now nearer up with its work than ever. He expects to take a vacation this summer, which is an unusual thing for the judge of the Criminal Court in this county.

A few days ago Judge Alford said that of all the cases on the docket where arrests have been made only about fifteen remain untried. The grand jury, which is expected to report to-day, will, of course, add to this number. Among the important criminal cases untried are those against Flavius J. Meyers, former superintendent of the county asylum, who is charged with grand larceny; John O. Moore, charged with murder; Maud Goodin, charged with conspiracy and John O. Duncan, who murdered Mrs. Mary Cole a week ago. Prosecuting Attorney Pugh, who is now on his weddl expects to take up the case against Mrs. Maud Goodin some time in August.

HARRY C. NIELDS'S HABITS Aired Before the Probate Commissioner Yesterday. Probate Commissioner Walker yesterday heard evidence on the petition filed with him a few days ago requesting the removal of Harry C. Nields as administrator of the estate of his sister, Harriet M. Wright, and as guardian of her two children, Beatrice and Regina Wright. The petition was prosecuted by the parents and sisters of Nields on the ground that he was morally unfit to have the care of his two nieces. Commissioner Walker was given to understand that the grandparents of the children, Nields's father and mother, desired to have the little girls live with them. Nields is a young married man and has regular employment at the Madden lounge

A host of witnesses were on hand to testify as to the private character of Nields. It was claimed that before his marriage he lived at home with his parents and sisters and that he abused his mother and was unkind to his sisters. There was testimony to show that the family finally ran him away from home on account of his conduct Nields declared that this was untrue. He said he left home because his family drank beer and he was opposed to it. The fact was brought out that yesterday was Nields's twenty-fourth birthday anni-versary, and this reminded one of the witnesses that two years ago yesterday, the man's birth, an incident took place in his home that showed his vicious disposition. It appeared that three of his sisters, recalling that the day was his birthday, came to him and playfully proposed slapping him on the back as many times as he was years old. Nields did not take kindly to this, the evidence showed. He figured that if each of his sisters took a hand at the game he would have to stand sixty-six vigorous punches in the back. The fun began and Nields rebelled. The testimony showed that he became greatly enraged and threw a pair of scissors at one of the young women. glass tumbler at another and struck the third with his hand. Other witnesses recalled the occasion of Nields's wedding, which seems to have been an extensive affair. There was plenty to drink, and the testimony was to the effect that Nields became so badly intoxicated that his wife had to put him to bed. Some witnesses testified that on this occasion Nields's mother yielded to the influences of the joyous occa-sion and drank several "rounds" with her son. Nields admitted to the court that he perhaps took a bit too much on that night. out said he had been very steady in his habits since then. The probate commissioner was informed by witnesses well acquainted with the habits of the Nields fam-

One of the Allegations in Mrs. Kerkhoff's Cross-Complaint. Some time ago Charles Kerkhoff brought suit for divorce in the Circuit Court against Minnie Kerkhoff, in which he charged that his wife possessed a violent temper, that she had declared she did not love him, and also that she visited winerooms. Yesterday Mrs. Kerkhoff's attorney filed a cross-complaint in the Circuit Court. asking that she be granted the divorce, and charging Kerkhoff with all manner of offenses. She says they were married in No-vember, 1898, and II. I together until April of this year. She arges that Kerkhoff gave her but $1 where she lived with him. She avers that he owns eighty acres of land in Howard county, from which he receives $400 a year rent. She says that Kerkhoff used tobacco and spat in the potatoes in the kitchen. She further charges that he sang vulgar songs about the house and repeated vulgar stories. Mrs. Kerkhoff says she is fifty-eight years of age and her husband is

When he would keep a little change for himself, he says, his wife would become violently hysterical and throw the money h had given her into the street. He also charges that she has attempted to drive him away from home with a poker.

The Dead Horse Hauler Turns. Jacob Hass, in the Superior Court, is suing Frederick M. Bachman and Samuel E. | Cleveland Plain Dealer. Rauh for $5,000 damages each. HONORS OF TWENTY-ROUND BOUT AWARDED TO JOE WOLCOTT.

Lively Fight Between the Colored Welter Weight and the Australian Middle Weight-Other Sports.

NEW YORK, June 23 .- Joe Walcott, the colored welterweight boxer, was given the decision over Dan Creedon, the Australian middleweight, at the end of a hard-fought twenty-round bout before the new Broadway Athletic Club to-night. Johnny White was the referee.

In the opening round Creedon led straight left, landing on the head, and sent it back to the body. Walcott hooked his left to the chin. A right from Walcott put Dan's eye in mourning before the bell rang. Walcott opened the second with a left hook to the eye, Dan shooting his right to the body, following with a short left to the face. Walcott bore in with left hooks to the jaw and rights to the body, keeping Dan moving around the ring. Walcott came out strong in the third and drove his left straight to the mouth, but was blocked cleverly when he tried his right for the body. Walcott kept pummeling his opponent rapidly, receiving occasional counters, which did not seem to have any effect on him. In the sixth round a left smash from Walcott sent the blood spurting from Creedon's right eye, and after Dan received a right and left on the body he looked very tired. He came up in the next round looking strong, having evidently fully recuperated. Walcott sent a succession of left jabs to Dan's face, much to Creedon's Walcott had it all his own way. Dan made a wonderful rally in the fifteenth, sending his right over three times to the negro's head. In the seventeenth Walcott slipped to his knees in a rush which Creedon evaded. Walcott was on his feet in a second and both men laughed. The nineteenth round found Walcott forcing Dan all over the ring with lefts to the body and rights to the head. Dan fought back desperately, but his blows lacked steam. When they shook hands for the wind-up Walcott rushed and tried hard to land a decisive blow, but Creedon managed to avade him cleverly. When the gong ended the bout the negro turned and shook hands with Creedon and Lavigne. Referee White gave the decision to Walcott. Harry Fischer, of Brooklyn, met Tim Hurley, of Susquehanna, in the preliminary contest, which the referee stopped towards the close of the third round. Fischer won, after punishing the Pennsylvanian badly. Hurley went down three times in the sec-ond round and was as good as out in the third, when the referee interfered. The men met at catch weights, both being in the vicinity of 160 pounds.

Shooter Elliott Defeated. BATAVIA, N. Y., June 23.-In a special match for the E. C. cup and the championship of America at inanimate targets, shot here to-day, between J. A. R. Cleveland, Kid McCoy's boxing partner, put out Parsy Corrigan, of San Francisco, in the sixth round of what was to have been a wenty-round go at the Denver Wheel Club to-night. The knockout blow was a right swing on the point of the jaw. The fight was a slugging match throughout and utterly devoid of anything scientific. The match occurred at a smoker by the L. A. W. Fast Time at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, June 23 .- Tenby and Uarda were the record-breaking performers to-day at the Hawthorne races, in which the latter was the only favorite to win. Tenby, however, furnished the greater feature by the mile race in 1:3914. The world's record over a circular course is 1:384, negotiated by Libertine as a three-year-old with ninety pounds up, at Washington Park, in 1894.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, O., June 23.-For six innings to-day the Hoosiers met with little success in trying to land on Bumpus Jones's benders successfully, and one lone single was all they were able to record. The hot weather was good for both pitchers and the Senators met with little better success against Kellum, except in the fourth inning, when, with two out, a single and two three-baggers gave the locals two runs. There were not enough men on bases to make the game real exciting, but the fielding on both sides was so fast and clean that scarcely an inning went by that some one on either side was not compelled to doff his cap to the applause of the spectators.

Manager Allen played the same faultless game that marked his work yesterday, and both Hickey and Stewart accepted every chance that came their way, and they were not all easy ones either. McFarland, Flynn and Hickey were the ones, however, who won the game for the Hoosiers. The former found Jones safely two times during the nine innings and also worked him for a base on balls. His first hit scored Allen in the fourth inning, and his base on balls, followed by Flynn's sacrifice and Hickey's single, brought in the winning run in the ninth. The other run was scored in the eighth.

After the fourth inning, try as they would, the Senators were unable to find Kellum's curves, and two singles, which did no damage, were all they could get after the fourth inning. Pickering, Bierbauer and Gillen all figured in sensational plays in the field, and Bierbauer carried off the senatorial honors with the stick. The fans are fully convinced that the Hoosiers are the team's hoodoo this season, for they have won eight out of nine games played against the Senators. Score: A.B. R. H. O. A. E. Columbus.

shall count; that the rules give the right of way to the runner. Baker, the blonde pitcher of the Milwau-kee, Minneapolis and Columbus teams in years past, signed by Washington last season, has been released. It is with genuine regret that the Cincinnati rooters will hear of Billy Dammann's release. The plucky little fellow played great ball for the Cincinnati team and will doubtless do good work for the Hoosiers.
